News

At the beginning of October 2019, Frontex and the OSCE Secretariat agreed on a working agreement to strengthen their co-operation in combating cross-border crime, trafficking in human beings, and in addressing migratory challenges. The agreement covers the following areas:

- Fostering good practices in border management;
- Ensuring fundamental rights protection of people at the borders;
- Developing capacities to address emerging forms of cross-border crime.

The document was signed by OSCE Secretary General Thomas Greminger and Frontex Executive Director Fabrice Leggeri.
