News

The European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) has launched a new website for applicants. It is available in all official languages of the CoE Member States. The site clearly explains the formalities of the application process, the admissibility requirements, and the procedure before the ECtHR. It also includes the most important handbooks and guides published so far. The complaint forms that are available online, however, should still be sent to the ECtHR by post.
