News

A new book written by 24 human rights experts and published at the end of January 2020 looks at FRA's impact during its 13-year existence. The book, entitled "Human Rights Law and Evidence-Based Policy – The impact of the EU Fundamental Rights Agency," reflects on FRA's experience throughout its first decade. It also examines the Agency's position in the policy environment, its role in researching applied rights, and its response to challenges and constraints. The book is available from Routledge.
